Sheikh Saleh Bin Abdulaziz Al Sheik

Minister of Islamic Affairs, Da'wa, and Guidance,

Greetings,

Mr. Abdulaziz Alammar informed me of the inquiry you have received from the officials. I want to express my thoughts about that:

First, I am confident that it is a routine procedure in such current circumstances. Like me, you probably have heard that many preachers and imams have been questioned and sometimes apprehended by the authorities. Still, they have all been cleared and the had faced no issues. Asking questions about me can be, even more [than the rest], considering that I have been residing in the area for a while, leading to many people knowing me and having my phone numbers and addresses. That is shown by how many people call me regularly for fatwa, help, and other issues, from people I know and people I don't know.

Second, I am confident of my safety and innocence; my work in the area is well known to everyone; mostly related to the mosque's activities and programs. We have always been in contact with the Da'wa Office in the United States and its current administration. Those I have connections with are limited to only well-known people, yet, it is also limited.

Third, I see that we should take the initiative and contact the inquiring entity [to tell them] that I have no objections in terms of meeting the officials there, and I even support that, and answer all of their questions and clear anything they need to be clarified.

Fourth, the most important thing to me, Mr. Minister and the other officials in the Kingdom, is that you don't have doubts about me. The matter is only a routine procedure in a significant event like this, which we all strongly condemn.

Finally, I hope to meet with you and receive your guidance.

I ask God to protect us from harm and take care of us.

Regards

Fahd Ibrahim Althumairi
